The Edit Gallery in Limassol is excited to travel to Nicosia and present its first offsite pop-up exhibition, titled CONTEMPORARY NOW.

Fostering a diverse creative environment, CONTEMPORARY NOW, features an eclectic mix of the gallery's most sought-after international and Cypriot contemporary artists. By bringing together unique artists from different origins, backgrounds, and mediums it aims to create a dialogue and promote contemporary art. As such, the exhibition reflects the complex issues that shape our rapidly changing world and sheds light to the new perspectives and visual languages that these artists explore.

Extending beyond the walls of the gallery, the exhibition reflects the gallery's interest in artistic experimentation outside the ordinary setting. The objective is to give to a broader audience the opportunity to witness the power and dynamics of contemporary art and offer new ways of experiencing it.

The exhibition will run for ten days.

CONTEMPORARY NOW will feature works from: Alec Cumming (UK), Alejandra Atarés (ES), Fikos (GR), Hannah Rowan (UK), Jess Cochrane (ASTL), Johannes Holt Iversen (DK), Lefki Savvidou (CY), Mathieu Frossard (FR), Mariandrie (CY), Philippos Theodorides (CY), Stella Kapezanou (GR)
